Shepherd Hotel

Hotel with a History

Since being founded in 1841 by the Briton, Samuel Shepherd, the Shepherd Hotel has been at the centre of Cairo's cultural high life and history. Once the private quarters of the Emperor Napoleon during his invasion of Egypt, the elegant and truly unique Shepherd is at the heart of downtown Cairo, located among Cairo's finest hotels in the prestigious Garden City area. With views across the River Nile, the Shepherd Hotel is within walking distance of the Egyptian Museum, Opera House, business districts and retail areas.
